SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
4.  You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (Check if applicable)
5.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
6.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
7.  You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: BRADLEY CARL REIFLER
CASE NUMBER: 1:20-CR-00512-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall abide by the mandatory and standard conditions of supervised release.

The defendant shall cooperatively participate in a mental health treatment program, which may include inpatient treatment, and pay for treatment services, as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to substance abuse testing, at any time, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall cooperatively participate in a substance abuse treatment program, which may include drug testing and inpatient/residential treatment, and pay for treatment services, as directed by the probation officer. During the course of treatment, the defendant shall abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages.

The defendant shall abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages, shall not associate with individuals consuming alcoholic beverages, and shall not use any medication containing alcohol without the permission of the probation officer or a prescription from a licensed physician. The defendant shall submit to any form of alcohol testing as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall provide any requested financial information to the probation officer.

The defendant shall notify the probation officer of any material change in his economic circumstances that may affect his ability to pay restitution, a fine, or the special assessment.

If not paid before supervised release begins, the defendant shall make monthly payments as set forth herein, and additional payments as his economic situation allows.

v. :
BRADLEY CARL REIFLER :

ORDER IMPOSING A FORFEITURE MONEY JUDGMENT

WHEREAS, on May 5, 2022, the defendant, BRADLEY CARL REIFLER, entered into a Plea Agreement with the United States whereby the defendant agreed to plead guilty to Count Two of the Indictment, and to voluntarily release and forfeit all property constituting or derived from proceeds traceable to the criminal violation to which the defendant pled guilty; and

WHEREAS, the defendant, BRADLEY CARL REIFLER, further consented to the entry of a forfeiture money judgment in the amount of $20,322,220, in that this amount constitutes the amount of proceeds derived from the criminal violation to which the defendant pled guilty;

WHEREAS, on May 5, 2022, the defendant, BRADLEY CARL REIFLER, pled guilty to Count Two of the Indictment, and the Court found the defendant guilty; and

WHEREAS, the United States has filed a Consent Motion for Issuance of an Order Imposing a Forfeiture Money Judgment, which would consist of a personal money judgment against the defendant, BRADLEY CARL REIFLER, in the amount of $20,322,220; and

WHEREAS, Rule 32.2(c)(1) provides that "no ancillary proceeding is required to the extent that the forfeiture consists of a money judgment."

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, BRADLEY CARL REIFLER, shall forfeit to the United States the sum of $20,322,220 pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Sections 981(a)(1)(C) and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c);

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States District Court shall retain jurisdiction in the case for the purpose of enforcing this Order;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(4), this Order of Forfeiture is final as to defendant effective at the time of sentencing, and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States may, at any time, move pursuant to Rule 32.2(e) to amend this Order to substitute property having a value not to exceed $20,322,220 to satisfy the money judgment in whole or in part; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall forward two certified copies of this Order to the United States Attorney's Office, Attention: Lynne P. Klauer, Assistant United States Attorney.

This the 3rd day of November, 2022.
